

The Hike

By Shivan Saxena

CandleLight Global America Summer Camp

July 31st 2015

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

My name is Shivam Saxena I am 7 years old. I was born in Berkeley, California in the USA. I have a twin sister and her name is Mahi. I live in Livermore, Ca with my family. My dad is an engineer, he works for a company called GroupWear and my mom takes care of us at home. I love writing and coloring pictures. I love dogs and cats, love soccer, love painting, and playing the piano. I also love chocolate. I hate spiders and snakes.

When I grow up I want to work where my dad works and I want to explore the world because the world has adventures and new friends for me.

Acknowledgments

I would like to dedicate this book to my mom and dad because they help me to grow to be smart, send me to school to learn, send me to art classes to make this book and because they love me.

Introduction

I wrote this book for fun and to learn. I also wrote this book to give enjoyment to the reader, and a message of letting animals be free because if your not letting them have freedom and the right food they may die. In addition,

I wrote this book because I love reading and writing.

The Hike

Once upon a time there was this boy named Kid. He went on a hike and he was hiking and hiking when he found a Cobra Snake named Fang.

Kid also Found a Flute on the ground . He played it and hypnotize Fang. then Kid said “Come with me and help me defeat my challenges” Since then Kid and Fang became a team and every one that came in the way was defeated.

One day he took Fang home to his mom, and you can probably guess what was going to happen.

Fine Fine Fine I'll tell you!!!!

The day Kid took the snake home, his mom screamed and she said : “Get this scary creature out of my house!!! “ and Kid said : “Fang is my friend! “ “Can we keep him in a cage at least?” She replied “yes but you have to clean up it’s poop, walk Fang and feed him, keep Fang far away from me and people who hate snakes!”

Kid was so happy !!!!

But Fang wanted to go home and wanted to see his mom and dad but Fang could not tell Kid because Fang could not talk.

One day when Kid played the flute it made Fang talk. The snake told Kid that he wanted to go home and Kid then told Fang that he will let him go and visit Fang ones in a while and let Fang go free into the wildness. They will always be friends.

Sources

- ◆ Original source comes from a picture my grandmother made of a beautiful forest, then I used my own imagination with my fantasy to create my story
- ◆ All Rights Reserved Shivam Saxena 2015
- ◆ CandleLight Global America Summer Camp 2015
- ◆ Photography, edition and direction by America F Jimenez de Lara, Tania Mabel and Oreydis Maceo

Content

- ◆ Front Cover Page 1
- ◆ About the Author Page 2
- ◆ Acknowledgements Page 3
- ◆ Introduction Page 4-5
- ◆ The Hike Page 6-10
- ◆ Sources Page 11
- ◆ Pictures Page 12
- ◆ Index Page 13