

The Evening Hike

By Nishant Nuthalapati

July 20th 2015

CandleLight Global America Summer Camp

One day I went hiking with my best friend, Taman. We hiked up a hill. This was the first time we ventured out like this together.

As we went up, we saw many kinds of animals like squirrels, chipmunks, rabbits, and even a deer.

While hiking, we saw something yellow in the distance, so we went after it!!!!

We quickly stopped chasing after the fast animal because, the animal and us came to a dead end and we found ourselves in his territory.

It turns out we were chasing a mountain lion.

Then all of a sudden the mountain lion started growling at us.

Run!! said Taman.....

We ran as fast as we could down the hill but, the mountain lion was too fast.

So Taman and I, took a log that was broken in half and, sledded back down on it, to the path the mountain lion had lured us away from.

As soon as we got on our bikes, we both agree to never to chase after animals in the trail again, specially those we don't know what they are.

About the writer

Nishant's Biography

My name is Nishant and I am ten years old. I was born in Martinez, CA now I live in Fremont, CA with my family. My mom's name is Madhavi and her career is in the food and health industry. My dad's name is Seshu and his career is a software engineer and, he works for the company General Electrics or known as GE. I also have a brother and his name is Prashant. He is going to American High school and is fourteen years old. I am currently going to a school called Forest Park and I am going to 5th grade there. I also go to CandleLight Global America and I learn how to be an amazing artist and develop my cognitive creativity through painting, writing books, creating movie trailers, and other essential skills. When I grow up I want to be a doctor and candlelight Global America helps me by teaching me about the body.