Biography

Saniha Dogganahalli

I was born in Fremont California in 2007. My school is Patterson Elementary, I am in 2nd grade and I will be going to 3rd Grade soon. My mom is a teacher. Her name is Vinu Hosahalli. She is a volunteer for Green Kids and so am I.

My dad is a software engineer that works at Apple. His name is Sathish Dogganahalli. I have a brother who is four years old and he goes to a school called Challenger School. We love to spend time with each other and we all live in Fremont, California. I am learning art at CandleLight Global America.

There I learn how to paint with Acrylics, watercolor paints, colors, and drawing. I create Environmental art. I also learn how to write books and create movie trailers and movies. When I grow up I want to be a teacher.

Acknowledgments

I would like to dedicate this book to my family, my dad that supports the growth of my knowledge, my mom who nurtures my talent, and my brother who inspires me and I get ideas from him.

Introduction

*The moral of my story
is to never be greedy
or to take things of others.*

The Fairies

My Name is Saniha. I was exploring my new house...

when all of a sudden.... I heard a bush rustling behind me. When I looked around I saw a tiny little fairy:

Why Hello! I said...

*I just couldn't believe my eyes.
At first I thought it was a trick but, it wasn't.*

*So... I told her to hide; but all of a sudden, I recognized her.
It was Phoebe
the fashion
fairy.*

I asked what was wrong?

*She told me
about Jack Frost, and how
he had stolen
Queen Titiania's
Jewels from her crown. It's Terrible she said.*

*Then, I helped each fairy get their jewels
back by taking Jack Frost's goblins.*

*At the end all the fairies thanked me
for the hard work I did.*
